HOURS: 5-10 hours per week, summer & winter hours apply

Fantastic opportunity for a passionate, energetic and enthusiastic person to join Meppershall Council's team.

This role would suit a hands-on and driven groundsman with a well-rounded skill set.

The ideal candidate will be friendly, self-motivated and have a positive attitude. They will have previous experience maintaining gardens and managing grounds.

He / She will have good organisational skills and time management, work to a high standard and be reliable and flexible in their approach.

This post involves working within the Council's cemetery, parks, recreation areas and open spaces including maintaining and up keeping areas of open space, play equipment, sports facilities and buildings.

If you are keen and self-motivated and feel you would fit into a small, busy and forward thinking Council we would love to hear from you.

CV's will not be accepted.
